Dr. Barbara K. Lundblad
Joe R. Engle Professor of Preaching
Union Theological Seminary
New York City

Dr. Barbara Lundblad is a native of Gowrie, Iowa and a 1966 graduate of Augustana College. She earned advanced degrees from Yale Divinity School and Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago, and has taught at Yale Divinity School, Princeton Theological Seminary, Hebrew Union College and the Association of Theological Schools in Chicago. She has brought much leadership to homiletical organizations, authored numerous articles for preaching periodicals and preached and lectured throughout the United States.

As an ordained minister in the ELCA, Dr. Lundblad often leads worship at Advent Lutheran Church in Manhattan as well as at Union's James Chapel. She has been co-president of the Network For Inclusive Vision (ELCA) and a member of the local 'One Voice' campaign working for full inclusion of GLBT people in the ELCA.

Dr. Lundblad is the author of two books: Transforming the Stone: Preaching Through Resistance To Change and most recently Marking Time: Preaching Biblical Stories in Present Tense.

MFSA proudly presents the 2010 Social Action Awards prior to Dr. Lundblad's address.
