

What's Killing Our Children?

What Can We Do?

Thursday, January 17, 2019 – 7:00 PM

Grand View University, Student Center – Speed Lyceum Room 103
2811 East 14th Street, Des Moines*

[Artist: Lorena San Elias Martinez]

You are invited to

An evening of music, poetry, and informative short talks with action components about:

- Violence towards/starvation of children in Afghanistan and Yemen
- Detention of Palestinian children by the Israeli government
- Detention of children on US/Mexico border
- Racial profiling in Des Moines

Sponsored by Catholic Peace Ministry

Co-sponsors: American Friends Service Committee; Criminal Justice and Sociology Dept., Grand View University Center for Exploration of Peace and Practice of Nonviolence; Des Moines Faith Committee for Peace; Iowa Justice For Our Neighbors; Iowa Peace Network; Methodist Federation for Social Action; Middle East Peace Education Coalition; Plymouth Peace Committee; Plymouth Welcoming Migrants Committee; Women's International League for Peace & Freedom; United Methodist Women, Central District

Free and Open to the Public

*Parking is available in the lots just to the south of the Grand View Student Center (corner of E. 14th and Morton). Enter through the south doors of Grand View Student Center, and the room for the event (Speed Lyceum) is right inside those doors.